

David Chadwick has been a lawyer working in the City in the international political risk insurance sector for some 30 years. He advises international insurers and reinsurers on a range of issues arising out exposures emanating from the world's leading and most pressing political events. An average cricketer, cyclist and general sports obsessive, he assists GB Boxing as an independent director focusing on legal issues that the organisation has to grapple with from time to time.

David sits on the Audit Committee, Governance Committee, D&I Steering Group and is the Board Anti-doping Champion.
