

Lucy joined the Board in 2017 and brings a breadth of experience across Finance, IT Operations, Property, Risk, Transformation and Programme Delivery covering UK and international businesses. Delivering within multi-site, and multi-channel environments.

She has held senior positions in Tesco PLC, Marks and Spencer PLC, Camelot, Whitbread PLC, McColl's Group PLC and Jack Wills. Her time as CFO of Camelot has given her a good understanding of the funding process for elite sports. She is a strategically minded senior finance professional who is highly skilled in fast moving commercial situations and the areas of Governance, Risk Management and Control with considerable experience working within highly regulated environments and not for profit organisations.

She currently works as an interim CFO and finance consultant in the retail and FMCG sectors and also sits on the Board of another not-for-profit organisation, The BCI, which is a professional institute for risk management and resilience professionals. Lucy has been passionate about boxing since childhood when she attended amateur boxing nights her dad organised at the school where he was a teacher.

Lucy serves as the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee.
